A MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTORS

Welcome to Anime Festival Orlando!

We're so thrilled to open our doors to you once again for another unforgettable weekend of fandom, friendship, and fun. This year marks our second at the beautiful Rosen Plaza, and we're incredibly grateful to have this space to grow, explore new ideas, and create a welcoming home for everyone in our community.

AFO has always been more than just a convention—it's a celebration of creativity, passion, and the bonds that bring us together. And holding our event during Pride makes it all the more meaningful. We are proud to be here to help provide a space where you can be your authentic self. Your voices, stories, and energy make AFO what it is—a place where everyone is seen, respected, and celebrated.

To our attendees: thank you for your continued love and support. Whether this is your first AFO or your twenty fifth, your enthusiasm is what keeps this festival alive and thriving. Every cosplay, every panel question, every shared laugh in the halls—these moments are what we cherish.

To our staff and volunteers: you are the heartbeat of AFO. None of this would be possible without your passion, dedication, and hard work. From early morning setup to late-night breakdowns, to the countless hours you all spend leading up to AFO, you go the extra mile to ensure every attendee has a magical experience. We are endlessly grateful for everything you do. Thank you!

We've got an incredible weekend planned for you—panels, performances, meetups, a prom, exciting night time events and surprises around every corner. And we're already dreaming big for what's to come. The future of AFO is bright, and we can't wait to grow alongside all of you.

Thank you for being part of our story. Let's make this weekend one to remember.

With all our love,

Ryan Jones

ORLANDIA

LEVEL II • SALON 13, 14

Tales of Orlandia is a Live Action Convention Experience (LACE) exclusive to Anime Festival Orlando (AFO). Every year, the Tales of Orlandia team selects a theme such as Cyberpunk, High Fantasy, Superheroes, amongst others that may fall into the realm of anime and Japanese culture; then craft this unique experience.

Attendees of the convention are invited to become Orlandians and take part in this interactive show and game where they get to directly affect the Tales of Orlandia story through quests, card games, and other forms of gameplay. Tales of Orlandia is completely free for AFO attendees, and is intended to be enjoyed amidst your other convention plans; although it can be enjoyed as your main event as well. All players are welcome, no matter your level of commitment to the game.

HOW IT WORKS.

Tales of Orlandia takes place over the entire convention weekend, with the main story told through a scripted stage show. This show introduces the setting, conflict and various factions at play in the world this year. The show usually takes place in three (3) acts and is spread across the weekend — Act 1 during Opening Ceremonies, Act 2 as its own show, and Act 3 at Closing Ceremonies.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE.

Want to participate and potentially affect how the story ends? Aside from the main story told on stage, there is a dedicated room at the convention, nicknamed the Tavern, where most of the action takes place. In order to participate, head to the Tavern and speak with someone at the sign-up desk to help you get started. They'll give you the basic rundown on how to get started playing and how to support your chosen faction.

THE NPCs of ORLANDIA.

Once you've chosen a faction in the Tales of Orlandia conflict, you will begin to meet an array of non-playable characters (NPCs). They will guide you, challenge you, and sometimes even entertain you. Most NPCs even have their own unique storylines and quests throughout the weekend, running concurrently to the main storyline.

MORE WAYS TO PLAY.

Playing the exclusive card game isn't the only way to lead your faction to victory. You also have the option of playing carnival games, choosing quests from a quest board, or doing various other activities to earn points in the game. At the end of the weekend, the faction with the highest score wins the game and will be victorious in the conflict. Not only that, but for their contributions, the players with the highest scores receive prizes. In past years, prizes have ranged from custom game boards to a pass to the next year's convention.

So come join us and start your very own Tale of Orlandia.

TRY TO SURVIVE ONE OF THE DARKEST PERIODS OF ORLANDIA'S HISTORY...

Hundreds of years have passed since the Khazradanium Moon, and with its passing, a new horror has grown on the western side of Orlandia. Monsters unlike any seen before have begun to appear, and are growing in number. Vampires, werewolves, vengeful spirits, and even the dreaded fel plague the area. What is this mysterious Darkheart Ritual, and what does it mean for the citizens of Orlandia?

Whose side will you join? Join Tales of Orlandia: The Darkheart Ritual and determine which side will prevail!

THE FACTIONS

LAMPLIGHTERS

Fight back against the darkness. The Lamplighters, a tireless group of monster hunters led by the human Zarya Pax and her werewolf Lieutenant Jedidiah Evasparda, are the last defense against the growing night. Join them in protecting the innocent populace of Orlandia!

SHADOWSPAWN

What goes bump in the night? The Shadowspawn, a legion of monsters and those under their thrall under the leadership of the vampire Desmond Von Venestra and his fellow lieutenant Lord Nigel, are preparing their most foul plot yet. Join them to rule over Orlandia once and for all!
